

Leeward islands 2 Weeks Cruise

1st Day

Start from the DYW base at 12h30, to the Motu Mahaea or Motu Cerant (Tahaa). Beautiful snorkeling near the reef, swimming in crystal clear waters. Night at the Haamene bay, dinner at the Tahaa Maitai, chez Bruno, excellent chef. Book in advance 65 70 85

2nd Day

Anchor up for Huahine 25 Miles 5-6 Hours . Stopover off Fare, a typical small village. Boutiques, bar and restaurant on the sea front. Refill the water at the dock

3rd Day

Sail to the South and anchor in the beautiful bay of Avea. Good snorkeling on the coral heads and swim with the Manta rays along the sand edge. Go for a walk along the shore on the East side of the cape. Restaurant Relais Mahana.

4th day

Passage Huahine- Raiatea, downwind, good fishing towing a line for tunas or mahi mahi. Enter the Irihu pass and take a mooring in the Faaroa Bay.

5th day

Take the kayaks or dinghy along the mangrove river (no engine allowed there) Visit the botanical garden beyond the wooden dock. Sail to Hotopuu bay stopover for the de Taputapuatea Marae then overnight at the Nao Nao Motu.

6th day

Sail to the Punaeroa pass for a downwind passage to Bora Bora, anchor on the west side of motu Topua.

7th day

Explore the lagoon. Sail to the East side of the Bora Bora lagoon. Many possible spots for anchor. Visit the

DREAM YACHT
WORLDWIDE

Lagoonarium and swim with the rays, sharks, turtles... BBQ at night

8th Day

Back to the west of the lagoon, mooring and diner at the Bloody Mary's + refill water on the dock.

9th Day

Day sail to Tupai, a deserted atoll, very good fishing then back to Motu Tepua for the night

10th Day

Passage for Maupiti 3 hours sailing. Check the condition of the pass call Camille or Alain from Maupiti .If the conditions are too rough, postpone or take the ferry for a day visit of Maupiti.

11th Day

Visit the island walking around, snorkeling the reef and dinner at the only restaurant near by the post office.

12th Day

Sail to Bora Bora, mooring at the Bora Bora Yacht Club. Refill water and dinner ashore

13th day

Sail to Tahaa

Call Alain Plantier for a mooring buoy in the Hurepiti bay and book the tour for tomorrow (tel 65 62 46 VHF 9) or anchor in the bay. Night on the mooring, visit the Sophie Boutique and dinner aboard.

14th day

After the breakfast, excursion in the Tahaa mountain with Alain Plantier. Night at the Haamene bay, take a mooring at the Hibiscus restaurant or anchor in the North of Motu Mahatea, excellent snorkeling

15th day

Back to the Marina DYW, at 8AM, stopover at the fuel station at the entrance of the marina for fuel and diesel refill, then call the base for docking assistance. Debriefing and paperwork at the base. Possible day use at the Hawaikinui Hotel (check with the base 2-3 days in advance)